Protect What Matters: Advocate for Your Credit Union Today

As Congress moves through the 2025 session, tax reform has emerged as a key topic of debate — Midland Credit Union's future and your financial well-being could be affected.

Credit unions are not-for-profit, financial cooperatives exempt from federal corporate income tax, which allows us to offer our members better rates on loans, lower fees, and higher rates on savings accounts. This year, all tax exemptions are on the table and banks are continuing their decades-old efforts to tax credit unions like banks. Any tax increase on credit unions is a tax on our members.

As a valued member of Midland Credit Union, your voice plays a powerful role in shaping legislation that impacts your financial well-being. Please take a moment to visit the link below to send an email to your lawmakers. Your voice matters. Your action counts. Thank you for your support!
