 Back-to-school shopping season is here, and scammers know you're on the lookout for a great deal. Before making a purchase online:

- Check to ensure the website is secure
- Read reviews from other buyers
- Be skeptical of deals that seem too good to be true
- Verify the seller before entering payment information

Staying alert can help you shop smarter and avoid costly mistakes.

Fraudsters are claiming that there are inappropriate images on people's electronic devices. Scammers may tell you that they can resolve the issue if you give them remote access to your account or send them gift cards/money/crypto.

However, that's not how this should be handled and is a scam. If you receive suspicious communication with concerning claims, reach out to local law enforcement for help.
