reMEMBER: Not every storm repair offer is the real deal.

Before hiring help, research contractors, verify credentials, avoid high-pressure offers, and be cautious of anyone requesting payment or personal information upfront.

With 2025 U.S. fraud losses totaling at least $16 billion, protecting credit union members from financial fraud is a priority. America's Credit Unions has launched an America Saves campaign during the month of August to raise awareness of one of the fastest-growing types of financial fraud: check fraud.

The campaign, "Check Yourself: Stop Check Fraud Before It Starts," provides weekly themes to help you know how to detect check fraud and what to do if it happens to you.

Protect Yourself Against Check Fraud

Scammers are very clever - often pretending to be from the credit union "fraud team."

Do not be tricked into providing online banking passwords, PINs, or one-time verification codes via phone call or text. Protect yourself.
